Final Note by the Third Member of Council.

Subject:-

Cancellation of the appointment of Miss Michael, M.B.,C.M., M.R.C.S.(London) and L.M.(Dublin) as Assistant Surgeon.

8) In July 1920, one Miss Michael M.B.,C.M., M.R.C.S.(London) and L.M.(Dublin) applied for an appointment in the State Service.

9) The Senior Surgeon, to whom the above application was referred for opinion recommended that, in view of the special qualifications possessed by Miss Michael, she might be started as a first grade Assistant Surgeon, on Rs.300/- per mensem, on probation for one year.

10) As there was need for women doctors, the recommendation of the Senior Surgeon was sanctioned and Miss Michael was appointed as an Assistant Surgeon first grade on a pay of Rs.300/- per mensem. This appointment was ordered to be counted against the vacancy caused by the death of Miss Aychammal in the general cadre and the number of appointments in the men's cadre of Assistant Surgeons reduced by one (Government Notification No.G.10044-5/Med.11-20-6 dated 22nd November 1920).

11) The Senior Surgeon now states that Miss Michael to whom the order was communicated on the 25th November 1920 has intimated in her letter dated the 11th February 1921, that the order reached her just when she was about to take up another appointment which she could not reject and that she has therefore declined the offer made by Government.

12. I submit the above for the information of His Highness.
